

Grand Slam of Curling Players Cup- Volunteer Roles and Requirements

Benefits of being a Volunteer:

- Receive accreditation to attend the curling draws when you are not working
- Watch some of the best 24 male and female curling teams in the world compete

All Volunteers Will:

- Commit to minimum of 18 hours in order to receive free jacket (volunteers unable to provide 18 hours will be required to purchase an event jacket for $29.99 +HST)
- Arrive promptly for assigned shift, neatly attired according to dress code (Volunteer Jacket and black pants), wearing volunteer Identification
- Contact responsible Director if unable to make shift as soon as possible
- Be able/willing to switch shifts in the event of gaps/emergencies
- Act as an Ambassador of Curling and the Kingston Community by maintaining friendly, positive attitude to all present at the event.

Duties:

Role/Director/Numbers Needed	Description	Knowledge/Training Required	Physical Requirements
Statistician Director: Sandy Staples 5 people each draw/2 for finals	Under the direction of event Director, volunteers will judge and record the success/failure of the competitors' curling shots and sweeping effectiveness	Specific training will be provided prior to event. Date to be determined. Must be knowledgeable about curling and be able to compare the results of a shot versus the intention of the team's called shot. Must be comfortable working with computers	Seated in Private Area
Timer/Scorekeepers Director: John Giles 5 people each draw @ SPP 5 people each draw @ RKCC (Wheelchair Event)	Under the direction of an event Director, volunteers will keep track of thinking time used by competitors and update the digital scoreboards.	Specific training to be provided before the event. Date to be determined. Officials will be present to help correct errors in scoring/timing.	Seated in Private area

	At RKCC, volunteers will only be keeping track of thinking time	Extra timer at RKCC will be asked to upload scores on computer
On-Ice Officials Director: John Giles 2 people each draw – Main event only	Volunteers will be at each end of the ice and relay scores to officials in booth with scorekeepers/timers. May be called upon to determine if a rock is touching the centre line or hog line. May be called upon to assist with rock measurement	Specific training to be provided before the event; able to use walkie-talkie, good eye-sight to look down the centre-line to determine if a rock is touching centre-line in places where the line is missing because of sponsor logos	Stand for the entire length of a game
Security Director: Steve Garrah 3 – 6 per draw – starting earlier and leaving later than other volunteer shifts.	As a member of the security team, you will be responsible for ensuring that guests have access to areas provided by their ticket package. This will include monitoring different areas around the arena, checking tickets and badges for access to secure areas, and ensuring that the arena is emptied of guests after each draw	Training will be provided on what to look for in the credentials. Slush Puppie Place have their own security guards	Ability to stand/walk for the full length of arena for duration of the draw
Information and Volunteer Lounge Director: Barb Nayler 2 to set up lounge before the event 2 per draw – starting earlier than other volunteers	Volunteer Lounge Monitoring availability of refreshments Information -providing directions within building, responding to Frequently asked questions; providing information regarding local restaurants, etc.	Welcoming personality, likes to engage with strangers	Some lifting of food supplies (e.g., coffee urns) Mostly sitting, some standing
Ice Crew Installation and Maintenance Director: Doug Lutz Starts the Friday before the	Assist with unloading Grand Slam transport trailer containing carpet, rocks, all ice installation equipment, etc., and help to	No experience needed. Training will be provided	Ability to lift 50 lbs/23 kg if required. Active job with lots of walking and standing

event. 8 – 10 people working shifts from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday/Saturday/Sunday/Monday to be covered. 6 people - 2 hours before each draw; 2 people during each draw	locate items in proper areas of the arena. - during practices and draws, help with ice cleaning duties, snow removal, hack cleaning, stone placement, carpet vacuuming and exchanging advertising bumpers at each as end of the ices as needed
Set Up and Tear Down Director: Richard Plunkett 8 – 10 people All work the weekend before the event and after the last draw.	Unload GSOC truck on Friday. Set up and tear down of tables and chairs, hanging board drapery, as well as the event signage. Hours depend on when carpet is installed around ice. Tear Down – all volunteers required to assist	None	May require some heavy lifting of tables and chairs. Could be some ladder climbing for signage
50/50 Director: Nancy Wilkie 3 – 6 per draw (weekends may be busier). Some shifts at RKCC	Walking around the arena selling tickets to the guests processing payments via electronic devices	Must be 18 to sell tickets; training on use of electronic devices to be provided	Standing and walking to sell tickets
Après Curl Director: Kristi Murphy Numbers TBD Shifts starting in the afternoon, late hours after the final draw	Support the entertainment area after the draws. Possible Local Entertainment Thursday, Pride Night Friday, Grand Slam of Karaoke Saturday	19 years of age or older	Standing/Walking/Possible late evenings
On-Ice Assistants (Wheelchair Event- RKCC) 8 per draw (1 each end of the ice)	Assist wheelchair athletes in clearing rocks, setting out rocks, hanging scores, doing measurements, etc.	Confident in doing measurement if required	Standing for duration of game; Move and possibly clean rocks, able to catch rocks
Greeters (Wheelchair Event – RKCC) 2 per draw	Greet spectators, encourage entry by donation to the Wheelchair Event (but not	Welcoming personality, likes to engage with strangers	Mostly sitting, some standing mandatory), answer questions as they arise

--	--	--	--